Birth records for Ohio

<https://www.familysearch.org/search/image/index?owc=https://www.familysearch.org/recapi/sord/collection/1932106/waypoints>

“Ohio, County Births, 1841-2003”

For Cuyahoga County, it is a series of index cards with the name of the child, the date of birth, and the parents' names. Sometimes there is a little more information. Statewide birth certificates began in 1908.

To search for birth records, you can use Ancestry, “Ohio, Birth Index, 1908-1964” (incomplete), or FamilySearch.org “Ohio, County Births, 1841-2003”, with an index and images of Ohio Birth Records, also incomplete. The Ohio Genealogical Society has a members' only restricted birth database for 1940 to 1998, which is also incomplete.

Death notices and obituaries in secular newspapers

<https://cpl.org/newsindex/>

“The Cleveland Necrology File was produced from a microfilmed copy of an alphabetical card file containing local cemetery records and newspaper death notices gathered by the staff of the Cleveland Public Library. It contains death notices published in the following newspapers:

The Cleveland Plain Dealer (1850-1975)

The Cleveland Herald (1833, 1847-1848, 1876, 1878-1879)

The Cleveland Press (1941-1975)

Note: This file is not an official or complete record of deaths in the Cleveland area during those years. It was not always customary during this time period for individuals to use paid newspaper notices. In addition, the cemetery records included in this database may not be complete.”

Some of the entries are just cemetery cards. The older notices' contents may be shown; there are only citations shown for the more recent notices. Those can then be searched at sites below with access to historical newspapers.

Property records for Cuyahoga County

<https://fiscalofficer.cuyahogacounty.us/>

Formerly known as the County Auditor site, this Fiscal Officer site offers searches of real property by owner name, parcel number, or address. The online information dates back to the 1970's. An aerial view map is also offered.

<https://recorder.cuyahogacounty.us/>

This was the County Recorder site, which is now part of the Fiscal Officer site. You may search deeds from 1810 to the present and see a facsimile of the document(s). Searching is by last name or parcel, and a range of dates can be specified. Mortgages are listed for land purchases. Digitized images of the deeds are shown. The names of buyers and sellers are listed, with the married names of women.

Besides deeds, military discharges registered with the Recorder's Office are listed. The date of discharge, and the volume that it was recorded in are given, but military discharge records are no longer public records. "Authorized persons may request a copy from the Recorder's office. Redacted copies are also available upon request at the Recorder's office."

Divorces and Civil / Criminal Cases

<https://cp.cuyahogacounty.us/>

Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas covers most civil or criminal cases. You may do a civil or domestic search by case or name. Also, there is a foreclosure search, and Court of Appeals search by case or by name.

You can find divorces back to the early 1970's. Domestic violence case information is not online, nor are Civil Stalking Protection Order cases.

Ohio Vital Records Indexes --
Places to find Ohio Birth, Marriage, Divorce and Death Indexes Online

FamilySearch.org has many databases for Ohio. One is https://familysearch.org/wiki/en/Ohio_Cuyahoga_County_Records

It is a copyrighted page, but we can tell you that, "The collection consists of the following types of records from the Cuyahoga County courthouse in Cleveland:

Birth affidavits (1860 -1908)
Delayed birth registrations and corrections (1873 -1908)
Voter Registration/List of Electors (1890 -1900)"

You have to have an idea of the birth year for your relative to find the image. Affidavits are not the same as "birth returns" (Ohio birth certificates were not registered until December 20, 1908).

FamilySearch.org also has "Ohio, County Marriages, 1789 - 2013" ... all counties are included and also "Ohio, Marriages, 1800-1958", which has 2.2 million names listed, but only covers 60 percent of all the Ohio counties.

www.GermanRoots.com/VitalRecords

This has online birth and marriage records indexes for the U.S.A. divided into states with links to birth and marriage indexes and abstracts. Also Included are Birth affidavits 1898 –1899 and 1900. These are not the same as birth returns or birth certificates.

www.ogs.org

The Ohio Genealogical Society site has quite a few free index and database search options. If you are a member, there are more search options. For some of the resources OGS is able to provide photocopies through the OGS Copy Service. See the Copy Service page for more information. Included are: Lineage Societies, Military - Names of Union Soldiers with Civil War Service in Ohio Units, Florida Obituaries of Ohioans who died in Florida, Ohio Cemetery Locations Index (non-Jewish), Ohio Obituary Index (They can provide photocopies.). The standard library copy service, which includes the research and return postage, is $5.

www.ohiomemory.org/

The Ohio Memory Project of the State Library of Ohio has multiple online collections across a wide variety of years and material types. Most records are easily searchable. Included: Ohio Jewish Chronicle (Columbus) and Photography collection
